

My first sales job: MCI

Description

Greetings!

It was a bleak year, 1983. I earned exactly $300 co-teaching classes called “Thinking Like a Women” and “The Feminine Face of God”. A friend told me the new phone company, MCI, was hiring sales people, so I went down to their office Monday morning at 9 and every morning after that until on Friday they hired me. I tell my MCI story in this video.

Click and enjoy. My first sales job

Stay tuned tomorrow when I will share my thoughts on SSI, SSN and other impediments to earning all the money you can earn.

If you would like to know more about the lucrative gig I’ve got going now based on a daily blogging program, click here. If this system could work for you, join me.

Be well, Do well and keep moving,

BetsyBell

206 933 1889

<http://DoWellwithBetsy.com>

Category

1. Business Op

Date Created

May 1, 2013

Author

betsyjbell